

Physics 3D Lab User Agreement

Updated January 22, 2019

rules and regulations

- Users must be current students in McGill Department of Physics.
- Users must complete the appropriate 3D printer orientation session before using the 3D printers.
- Nothing may be printed that is not appropriate for a university setting or violates McGill's code of conduct.
- Users agree to comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the use of the 3D printer, including copyright and patent infringement regulations.

printing etiquette

- Users are responsible for leaving the equipment in the same condition as when they found it.
- Users agree that if the equipment becomes damaged, defective, or unsafe, they will immediately contact Harrison or Thomas to inform them.
- Print jobs lasting fewer than 4 hours can be printed on first come first serve basis.
- Long jobs (lasting more than 4 hours) should only be completed on the long job printer, overnight, or on the weekends.

Agreement

I have read the User Agreement and agree to follow all rules and regulations of the space. I agree not to abuse the space, the materials, the tools, and printers. I agree to follow all safety protocols, and any harm that occurs to myself is my own fault. And I agree to have fun and make some cool things.
